Single Christian women: how should we then wait... | BaylyBlog

I have many godly single women friends, all of whom would like to be married but are without even a single prospect among them. What is the appropriate role of a single woman, particularly one who is desiring a husband?

More specifically, how forward is she allowed to be? I mean, we all say wait for the Lord, His timing is perfect, occupy yourself with other things, etc. and I think most of Six Traits to Look for in a Spouse | Desiring God It seems odd that right in the middle of this passage about the woman who fears the Lord, there's a verse about the husband. But it makes a point about the woman's commitment to her husband. Her work at home and service to her husband benefits his reputation and success. He is a better man because he is married to her.
